THE NEW PARADISE.

A Washington dispatch of the 23d says it is hardly probable that negotiations for the transfer of the Black Hills country will be inaugurated before the beginning of the next week, when the Council will probably get upon a working basis. The agency matters and minor questions having been disposed of, whatever may be the question as settled there seems little prospect of the consent of the Government being given to the entry upon the grounds in question by the whites during the present senson, for whatever is done will involve considerable money, which Congress must appropriate. Until that is done negotiations can hardly be said to be ratified. In the meantime it is reported there are over 2,000 men, who have abandoned their homes and business, and are now on the border expecting early permission to enter the coveted lands. It is not believed that the men and those who are daily journeying thence will fully abandon the enterprise. If the Government refuses to sanction their going forward their entrance would doubtless be resisted by the Indians, but if the barriers were once broken the influx of whites would in brief time, by force of numbers, practically settle the question of occupancy, and this now anpears to be the way the matter is likely to be disposed of.

Some wretch, who deserves to serve a term in State Prison, has descerated the grave of W. R. Williams in the Virginia cemetery, by pulling up the vines and flowers planted over it and daily cared for by an affectionate and and consistent backer for his camgrief-stricken wife.

THE PROPABILITIES OF ANOTHER REBELLION.

The above was the subject of an address delivered by M. C. Tilden in the Metropolitan Theater, Sacramento, last Saturday evening. The address is published in full in the Record-Union of the following Monday. We have given the same a careful perusal, and while we do not agree with the speaker in all of his utterances we heartily assent to the proposition that a return to power of the Democracy, with complete control of the Executive and Legislative Departments of our Government, will compel the American people to pay the cost of the emancipation of four millions of colored people, together with all other losses sustained by the Confederates in their late reballion. And this being our view of the case we want to see our Ship of State manned by true, loyal, devoted Union men for the next two generations at least.

MARKS' CASE.

We think Judge Blake of San Francisco is deserving of much praise from all law-loving citizens. The sentence of the poli tax forgers is yet fresh in the minds of our readers, and now John J. Marks, the dishonest ex-Harbor Commissioner, has had justice meted to him. In the Municipal Court at San Francisco on Saturday, all motions for delay of sentence in the case of J. J. Marks' convicted of embezzlement, were denied, and he was ordered by Judge Blake to stand up. The Court then said.

The judgment of this Court is that you be punished with imprisonment in the State Prison of this State for the term of seven years.

The defendant heard his sentence declined to enter into contracts with in mute anguish. ANOTHER CORRECTION.-Mr. Geo. W. Hatch, the patentee of method of MITY LODGE, No. 8. 8 of P., hold degular Conventions every Enday receiving at 7:30 o'clock sharp, in old Fellows Hall. All members of the Urder in good standing are cordially invited to attach.

W. Hatch, the patentee of method of tanning hides without bark, desires us to state that the rommunication in the Crescent, of Monday evening, tanning hides without bark, desires diately. over his signature, was not the language used in the communication sent by him. Several errors occur: First—That he had sold the right of this State, which is untrue. Second. -That his connection with the Reno tannery had ceased, which is not so. Third-That he should not be connected with any other works he hopes or expects to establish on the Pacific Coast-a statement uncalled for in any remarks made in the correct communication, which was sent to the Crescent with simply a desire to correct an erroneous impression given to the public by former articles in that paper that he was a partner in the tannery business here.

> PRISONER ESCAPED.-A prisoner escaped from Deputy Sheriff Allen, as he was bringing him up from Wadsworth Monday night. He jumped from the train this side of Clark's station, while Allen was attending to the wants of a second prisoner. The fellow had handcuffs on, and it is thought he will soon be captured.

FINE WORK.—We have been permitted to inspect a fine job of kalsomining at the residence of Mr. A. H. Manning, done by F. C. Updike. The beauty of this work is that it fills up all cracks in the wall, and makes it as smooth as isingless, and unlike the eld process of coloring and whiting, it will not rub off, or soil clothing. Mr. Updike can do this work in snow white or in any color desired. And he knows how to do the work in splendid style too. does Updike.

PORK AND LAGER.-Charlie Pegg says these are the pride of Cincinnati. We should judge so, seeing the corporosity Pegg carries with him. He must have eaten lots of pork, for he is as fat as a hog, and drauk lager beer to his heart's content.

CARPENTERS WANTED .-- We are informed by Mr. Haist, of the Mackey-Fair flame project, that fifteen carpenters can find employment at the lower mill. They are wanted imme-
